II. Intangible Cultural Heritage Inventory

1. National inventory

Compilation of the ICH Inventory was commenced in 2008 by the National Library and Documentation Board, under the support of the UNESCO. A National Committee consisting several scholars and Heads of institutions in the relevant fields was set up for the purpose.

It is to be noted here that although a common national inventory of ICH as such was not in Sri Lanka, the different institutions such as the National Museums Department, Department of National Archives dealing with cultural heritage in the country have their own inventories of intangible as well as tangible cultural heritage in their custody. These inventories are used for efficient delivery of missions of such institutions.

The ICH data collected at the Department of National Archives forms the nucleus of the resent ICH inventory of the National Library and Documentation Board. The objective of the compilation is to collect, preserve and make available ICH data to interested parties for research purposes. The Compilation is ongoing and not completed yet. Information contained in the inventory is available at the Official website for ICH: http://www.natlib.lk/inhe/
