DELBERT RICE is an engineer, anthropologist and biblical scholar, among other things. He has written scientific articles and has been a lecturer in universities and international conferences. Rice collected Ikalalahan folklore and translated Maranao folklore, some of which have been included in various publications.

Photographer/Book Designer

RENATO S. RASTROLLO is a photographer, graphic artist, book and exhibit designer. He earned his Bachelor of Fine Arts major in Advertising from the Philippine Women’s University. With over 25 years of experience in the field of documentary photography, his works have appeared in national and international publications. Presently, he is a cultural arts officer at the Cultural Center of the Philippines.

Other photo sources:

Ramzon Obusan Folkloric Group Collection.

Used by permission of Executive Director Dulce Obusan.

REFERENCES

Other resources:

Lopez Memorial Museum and Library

Interview informants:

Rehing of Calbiga, Samar (June 1996)

Ma. Zenia Matavel of Tanauan, Leyte (June 2009)

Sergi Bagason of Jaro, Leyte (September 2012)

Samtul

Luzar M. Gutierrez of Inabao, Butuan (April 2010)

Virginia Basillo of Hungduan, Ifugao (2013)

Elena Uyammi of Hungduan, Ifugao (2013)

Jose Uyammi of Hungduan, Ifugao (2013)

Rowena Sicat of Hungduan, Ifugao (2013)

Dinamling Mangigib of Hungduan, Ifugao (2013)

James Bimaynin of Hungduan, Ifugao (2013)